Obituary.
Mrs. Patrick Cassidy.
Ellen Murphy, widow of Patrick Cassidy, died Friday evening at an advanced age. She had been in poor health for some time. Mrs. Cassidy was born in Ireland, the daughter of Cornelius Murphy and Downey Murphy. She was the mother of 11 children.
She had resided in this city for the past 50 years. On January 30, 1914, she was united in marriage with Patrick Cassidy in this city by Rev.
Daniel Mullen. Mrs. Cassidy died on January 21, 1914, at the age of 88 years.

Mrs. Cassidy leaves two sisters, Mrs.
Joseph Sisk and Miss Julia Murphy, and two brothers, John P. Murphy and Mayor Timothy C. Murphy. There are also four children, Francis, Margaret and William J. Cassidy of this city, and four grandchildren. Mrs.
Cassidy had a large number of friends by whom she is deeply mourned.

Edward D. Dewey.
Word was received in this city Saturday afternoon by Walter H. Rogers of the sudden death of Edward D. Dewey at his New York City residence on Friday night, April 10th.
Mr. Dewey was the head of the firm of E. Dewey & Co., importers and wholesale grocers, and from a small beginning had built up a very large business in this city and foreign countries, employing about 40 salesmen and a force of 50 men in his warehouse in New York.

He was a frequent visitor in this city, where he had some relatives and the New England war game indications are that the Connecticut National guard will hold its annual tour of duty at Niantic the same as on last year. The report is that the war circles that the war game has been called off.

After the illness which made her an invalid for two years past and had kept her in her bed all winter, the death of Charlotte Johnson, wife of John P. Swann, occurred on Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Floyd H. Ledger, with whom she resided on Sunnyside avenue. She had borne her long illness with a patient spirit that endeared her to all with whom she was associated.

Mrs. Swann was a native of Sweden, where she was born in Vestervick on March 28, 1837, but after her marriage she came to this country a few years later and located in Norwich in 1873. They have lived in this city for nearly all the time since they have been in this city, occupying one of the first houses that was built in the Sunnyside section.
Mrs. Swann was a member of the old Central Methodist church and one of the earnest and devoted members. She was a member of the church until failing health prevented further active work. She was a woman of great piety and of a most distinctive disposition, who was devoted to the interests of her home and family to which she gave her best and loving service.

She is survived by her husband and by a son and daughter, John A. Swann and Mrs. Floyd H. Ledger.
Easter Music at Hospital.
At the Backus hospital Sunday afternoon a programme of music for Easter was given by Geer's orchestra, through arrangements made by class circle of the King's Daughters. The numbers were all bright and spirited and were greatly enjoyed by all in the institution. The orchestra, included Audrey W. Jarvis, cornet; John Kukla, clarinet; Frank Benson, violin; Fred C. Geer, piano.

Church of the Good Shepherd Universalist. Rev. Joseph F. Cobb preached at the morning service using the theme, Risen With Christ, and from the text, Ephesians 1: 6: God raised us up with Him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus.
Two other revelations of life, namely birth and death. We observe Christmas as one of the holiest of days for it celebrates the birth of Jesus our Lord. The resurrection of Jesus is the basis of our faith. We again at Easter we rejoice for the blessed reappearance of life in Jesus our Lord. Thus we note that man comes into possession of spiritual life through Christ and we may think of the resurrection of Christ as influencing him.

As man comes into possession of life through Christ, so we note that man perishes. There is a victory of life for which we do not need to look to some far off distant morning. We may feel it today.
The second part of the text tells us that God has raised us up with Jesus in the heavenly places. The Apostle says Christ is seated at the right hand of God. His rights and manifest in all his works of wisdom and righteousness, and goodness and love. He is not far away from us.

NORWICH BULLETIN, MONDAY, APRIL 13, 1914 EASTER BOY IN SECTION AND SONG Congregations that Filled the Churches at all Services on Sunday—Triumph of the Resurrection the General Theme—Beauty of the Christian Hope Typified by Floral Decorations.

After rain in the very early morning, Easter Sunday dawned bright and fair, with cheerful sunshine, although a March wind took some of the warmth out of the sun's rays. Easter congregations of good proportions filled the churches at both morning and evening services, uniting in the worship through sermon and music inspired by the thought of the Resurrection.

At Trinity Episcopal.
At Trinity Episcopal church the sermon at the morning service by Archdeacon J. Edred Brown was from the text, Job 14: 14: "If a man die, shall he live again?" This archdeacon Brown said was the persistent question, not only of philosophy and science, but of the human mind and heart. Clearly and convincingly the preacher developed the thought of the Resurrection.

The entire pulpit at Trinity Methodist Episcopal church was adorned with beautiful flowers. A large cross was at the center, surrounded by cut flowers, daffodils and hyacinths. The two windows on either side of the pulpit were filled with cut flowers.

Rev. C. Telford Erickson, Ph. D., an American Missionary to Albania, gave a most interesting address on the Making of the Nation at the Sunday Lecture and Lecture Series. The lecture was given in the Second Congregational church before a large audience.

Rev. C. Telford Erickson said he came to lay the appeals and stringent needs of the Albanians before the American people and to urge their aid in following this persecuted country. When Rev. Mr. Erickson and family were driven out of the country by the Ser-vians and had to take refuge in Switzerland he received a letter from an Albanian friend in which he expressed his deep gratitude for the providence of God in causing the Servians to drive them from the country.

At Central Baptist.
The morning service at the Central Baptist church on Easter Sunday.
The Resurrection According to St.
John. The sermon was given by Rev.
C. Telford Erickson, Ph. D., an American Missionary to Albania, gave
a most interesting address on the Making of the Nation at the Sunday
Lecture and Lecture Series. The
lecture was given in the Second Congregational church before a large audience.

At Broadway Church.
The pulpit at Broadway Congregational church was hidden with a wealth of flowers. The Easter lilies and daffodils and the entire front of the pulpit was prettily decorated with cut flowers.

The offertory solo, The Day of Resurrection, was well rendered in sweet clear voice by Mrs. Grace Aldrich-Crowell.
The sermon by the pastor, Rev. Dr.
W. Lester, gave the resurrection as the basis of our faith. He said that there is only one deathless life, that which is promised by the resurrection of Christ. He said that we are conquered by death, but we shall conquer it.
It is because he has conquered death that we too shall conquer it.

After the day's little day of earth there will be no more night. There will be no more sorrow. There will be no more pain. There will be no more tears. There will be no more death.
There will be no more sorrow. There will be no more pain. There will be no more tears. There will be no more death.

At Central Baptist School.
Rev. Dr. Erickson spoke also at the Central Baptist Sunday school before the men's class, but the whole school was called into the church auditorium to hear this address. There was an attendance of over 400 to hear him, and he thrilled his audience with his revelation of the conditions as he knew them in Albania.

CIGARETTE SMOKING BLAMED FOR PANTS CO. FIRE.
Chief Stanton Investigates—Watchman at Building Saw Smoking.
Fire Chief Howard L. Stanton, with others interested, made an investigation on Saturday of the circumstances surrounding the fire in the so-called Davenport building on Friday night.
The factory of the Ideal Pants Company, and came to the conclusion that it could be laid to cigarette smoking.
This removed the fire from the suspicious class in which it was at first catalogued.

Although smoking cigarettes is against the rules of the church, it is understood that the employees sometimes are quite likely to try to smoke in the building. There was an attendant of over 400 to hear him, and he thrilled his audience with his re-
them in Albania.

THE purpose of the memorial is explained in the brief forwarded as follows:
When a rich and beautiful life closes it is not lost or forgotten. Yet visible memorials of it, though not necessary, have a use, since they afford something tangible for memory and affection to rest upon and enrich in their own way.

The active impulse to frame such a memorial arose at once after the death of Dr. Lowellyn Pratt in June, 1913, especially on the part of the officers of the Norwich Free Academy and of the Broadway Congregational church, as well as within the circle of his family friends. After some consultation it seemed best for these three interests to unite in gathering the more accessible material for a memorial in such form that it might go to all friends, near or far, who would probably prize it.

Without attempting the impossible task of doing full justice to a career so varied and abundant, the aim has been simply to include a concise sketch of Dr. Pratt's life, the sermon by the Rev.
Mr. Worcester on the morning after his death, the prayer of the Rev. Dr.
Howe at the funeral service, the address given at the funeral service, the prayer of the Rev. Professor Mitchell, the two or three of the most formal or personal tributes that were otherwise made.

It is most fitting and happy that the typographical presentation of these narratives and appreciations should be under the charge of the officers of the Broadway Congregational church, who are the most accessible material for a memorial in such form that it might go to all friends, near or far, who would probably prize it.

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets.
If your skin is yellow-complexion polluted—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.
If you want a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box.
Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O. All druggists.

TRI KAPPA FRATERNITY
HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET
Delightful Affair Held at Wauregan House With Twenty Present.
It is most fitting and happy that the
typographical presentation of these
under the charge of the officers of the Broadway Congregational church, who
go to all friends, near or far, who
would probably prize it.

Twenty members were in attendance at the eighth annual banquet of the Tri Kappa fraternity at the Wauregan house Saturday evening.
The banquet was given in the household of the officers of the fraternity. Several were in attendance from out of town, the most notable being Harold E. Bassett, a member of the Tri Kappa fraternity at the University of Michigan.
The following menu was served:
Pancake Toss
Wafers
Celery
Boiled Halibut, Lobster Sauce
Hollandaise Potatoes
Squab Chicken, Maryland Half Lettuce and Tomato Salad Fruit Salad, Marshmallows
French Cream in Forms
Demi Tasse Newell E. Holmes held the place of toastmaster and the following responses were greatly enjoyed: A Kappa's Future, Frederick Spicer Cavalier Alumni, Frank L. Adams, Our Fraternity, Harold Thomas Robinson, Fraternity Ideals, Raymond B. Sherman.

cessful affair were
